

DIGITAL ARREST SCAMS

What is Digital Arrest?

Digital arrest scams involve fraudsters posing as law enforcement officials. They contact victims claiming they're involved in criminal activities and demand money to avoid arrest.

How it starts?

Scammers call victims and manipulate them by claiming that their names are associated with serious cases like drug parcels, sex rackets, illegal passports, etc. The fear is invoked and sets the trap for the scam to unfold.

Impersonation continues

Scammers ask the victim to get on a teams/skype video call, they impersonate officials from agencies like CBI or police. They create a convincing setup with official-looking uniforms and backgrounds.

PM Modi warns nation about rising Digital Arrest Scams

In his latest Mann Ki Baat broadcast, Prime Minister Narendra Modi expressed deep concern over “Digital Arrests Scams.” He urged citizens to be vigilant and warned that there is no legal provision for such arrests under Indian law.

How can you Stay Safe?

- Be wary of unsolicited calls and messages, especially those claiming legal trouble.
- Never share personal or financial information with strangers, even if they claim to be from authorities.
- Verify information independently. Don't rely solely on what the caller says.
- Hang up immediately if you suspect a scam.
- If you fall victim report it to cybercrime.gov.in or dial 1930
